FIVE-ACRE CORN TEST

New Plans of The Delaware Corn Growers' Association

TO ENCOURAGE BOYS' WORK

The new plans of the Delaware Corn Growers' Association give special recognition to the demonstrational value of boys' work as corn growers in field crop production enterprises. The new rules provide in the main as follows:

The boys' five-acre contest is open to any corn club boy of previous experience, and to all boys between the ages of 14 and 21 years, provided that they enroll with the county agent or county club leader on or before June 1.

Each contestant will be expected to keep a record of all items that enter into the cost of production, which record shall be given to 'the judges when they determine the yield. Basis of award:

(a) Yield of dry shelled corn, 70 per

Quality of corn produced, 15 per (Determined by 20-ear exhibit at county or State show, or in the field by mittee of special judges).

(c) Completeness and accuracy records, 15 per cent.

Awards: The champion corn grower of the boya' class in each county will be awarded a free trip to the junior short course, which will be held at Delaware College for one week, next winter in connection with the farmers' short course, provided that there are two o more contestants in the county.

A list of prizes will also be provided for best county and State exhibits. The boy who grows 100 bushels more of corn will be admitted into the 100 Bushel Corn Club, with the men of the State, and in recognition of this merit will be awarded a gold medal.

Whitsunday: "And there appeared upon them cloven tongues, like as of fire and it sat upon each of them. Acts 11:3.

This festival commemorates the con ing of "the Comforter, which is the Holy Ghost," promised by our Saviou to His disciples, and waited for by them with such eager hope and expec tation. It took place on the Jewish feast of Pentecost, the anniversary of the giving of the law Mount Sinai. A rushing, mighty wind filled all the nouse where they were assembled, cloven tongues of fire rested upon them and they were filled with the Holy Ghost, so that they were enabled to speak in all languages; and the great nultitude present there from all coun tries heard, each in his native tongue the wonderful works of God. Not visibly, not with a rushing wind or tongues of fire does the Holy Spirit descend upon us now when we gather together in the temple of the Lord. Yet s He present with us still, though unseen, at the font, or in the laying on of hands, in prayer or sacred meditation, overing above us with gifts of comfor and wisdom, ready to enter into every heart that will open to receive Him. Let us then keep this blessed feast of the church with love, and faith, and special prayer, that we may never grieve or resist the Holy Spirit of God, but that our whole lives may prove His presence in our hearts. The name Whitsun-day may be derived from Pentecost. The festival, like Easter, ncludes also the Monday and Tuesday following, that we may more fully understand its great importance, and en

According to an article in Monday's Philadelphia North American, written by Robert B. PEOPLE LOOK TO AMERICA

Thousands In The Stricken Land. Clinging To The Last Spark Of Life, Without Food And Without Clothing:

New York.—"More than half a million people will starve or freeze to death in the Near East this winter," is the word brought from that stricker land by Leslie H. Robinson, who as e soldier in the famous Rainbow Division of the A. E. F. saw many horrible eights in France, but nothing, he says, to compare with those on view all over

Mr. Robinson has just returned from the stricken land—a land where thousands are barely hanging onto the last few sparks of life, thousands without food, without clothing, without homes, clinging to the Near East Relief and America as their last desperate hope of survival. In charge of purchases and transportation for the relief work for many months, he had an excellent opportunity to see the situation at first hand, and he said that whatever had been told of terrible conditions they had been understated rather than exaggerated.

"On the high plain where are Haroot, Sivas and Trebizond," said Mr Robinson, "there is nothing but almost Arctic bleakness. It is bitter cold, but the people have no clothing -that is, we would not call it clothing A bit of gunny sacking, maybe reinorced with a few rags for the body; no shoes or stockings or gloves. Their emaciated bodies have no power to resist the steady awful cold. No wonder

"Houses? No. Ruins? Yes. Plenty of them. but roofless, windowless fragments of walls cannot keep out the deadly cold, and the dirt floors are not conducive to warmth. There is no fuel, no coal, no wood, except n the rare cases where a ruined house may still furnish a few scraps. "When the Turks were driven from that country they took every-What they could not take they destroyed. Entire orchards were cut down and used for firewood. Houses were dismantled, then burned. Every bit of farm stock, every tool or implement was taken or vrecked beyond repair. Nothing was left but a wilderness for the refugees to return to, and that is one big reason why the terrible conditions now exist.

"And those who survive the bitter cold are in imminent danger of death by starvation; at least 500,000 people, men, women and little children, will be the toll exacted by hunger and starvation before spring."

Difficulties Near East relief workers face in transporting supplies up to the "hunger centers" were detailed by Mr. Robinson, who served in the Signal Corps of the Rainbow Division, and is a South Dakota boy, who had lived for several years in Kansas City before the war. His chief was Major Davis G. Arnold, also a Rainbow man, who was in charge at Constantinople of what might be called the relief service

GREATEST FIGTHING MACHINE.

New Battle Cruiser Will Be Speedier Than Lusitania.

New York.-The world's greatest sea-fighting machine, a battle cruiser o be 1,000 feet long, with a speed 10 miles an hour faster than the ill-fated Lusitania, is now in course of construction, Charles M. Schwab said here at a meeting of the alumni workers of New York University's endowment

The new battle cruiser, he said, will have a width of 104 feet, a displacement of 60,000 tons and will carry 12 16-inch guns.

"The building of enough of these ships," he said, "will be a simple way of maintaining peace with the worldnot that the fighting men desire peace, but because of the fact that when we have such a formidable array of power it is not likely that any country will take it upon itself to encroach upon our rights. These new ships will be no more powerful or speedier than they should be for the protection of

The Justice added that he could not believe "for a moment that apart from the eighteenth amendment special constitutional principles exist against strong drink."

Justice Holmes was discussing the question of Congress delegating powers to the states when he made the passing reference to the liquor question.

SOLVING THE

Appeals Sent Out By Interstate Commerce Commission

RELIEF IS NOT YET IN SIGHT

It May Require Days, Even Weeks, To Start Anything Like A Resumption Of Normal Transportation Service.

Washington.-The Interstate Comnerce Commission took its first step Monday toward breaking the freight blockade. Telegraphic appeals were sent to all state, railway and public service commissions, urging them to join hands with the government in lifting the burden, while the commission's force of inspectors was put to work to help get accurate data respecting conditions at critical points. Practically all of the several hundred inspectors were assigned to aid in surveying traffic conditions at important gateways where the flow of freight traffic was clogged. The commission also expected to be fully informed on the terminal situation at all cities by tomorrow night. Members of the commission recog nized that the present crisis would provide a real test for the new trans portation act and likewise that the emergency clauses must measure up to the claims of their staunch sup porters if freight is again to be set to moving smoothly throughout the country.

With increasing complaints from shippers and requests for assistance from the railroads themselves, the commission is understood to have determined to go into the freight tieup with hammer and tongs. Officials, however, urged patience on the part of those watching for immediate results, since it may require days and even weeks to start anything like resumption of normal transpor-

In its first attempts at freeing the maze of rail equipment, the commission probably will deal with local situation in the various cities through individual roads. This was expected to last, however, only until a general scheme can be worked out by which priorities and embargoes can be employed to restrain the onrushing stream of commodities waiting at ev-

Further suggestions of the railroads were given the commission at conferences with representatives of the railroads' and shippers' organization officials. The fuel situation has slowly developed to the danger point, representatives said, and they proposed that the commission establish a general although temporary, order for the movement of grain cars westward and counter movement of coal cars east-

We Are Lost! Good-by, Men Men," His Parting Words

HEADING TOWARD THE COAST

Motor-truck Load Of Coin Breaks Down And Soldlers Reap A Harvest-More Than 2,500 Prisoners So Far Counted.

Mexico City.—"We are lost! Goodby, gentlemen!" These were Carranza's final words before his flight from the besieged trains in the early afternoon of May 14, while pausing omentarily before a crowd of terrified civilian refugees a few miles east of San Marcos, accompanied by a few intimates and guarded by what the special dispatches term "a very small cavalry force."

The fugitive president crossed the narrow valley through which the Mexican Railway passes, stopped for a few moments to watch the Liberal revolutionary forces occupy the stalled trains, then disappeared among the nountains. It is believed that Carranza is heading northeast toward the coast by way of Cofre de Perote, with the intention of boarding a steamer at some small port and escaping from the country. Judging from the list of captured officials and generals received Sunday at the headquarters in Mexico City of the Liberal revolutionary government a few are accompanying Carranza. Among them are believed to be Luis Cabrera, Secretary of the Treasury; Gen. Juan Barragan, chief of staff; Jen. Francisco Murguia, commander of the train guards; Gen. Francisco Urguizo, Sub-secretary of War, and Ygnacio Bonillas, former ambassador to the United States.

Gold And Silver Bars. An inventory of the funds of the National Treasury aboard one of the trains shows a great quantity of gold and silver bars, but comparatively little minted coin. Pastor Ruaix, Secretary of Agriculture, was in charge of this train. Manuel Aguirre Berlanga, Secretary of the Interior and head of the cabinet, is believed to be in hiding, as he was overheard to say that he could not stand the hardships of a horseback flight,

A motor-truck load of gold coin, which the Carranza party attempted to carry off, broke down, the soldiers obtaining the major part of it.

With more than 2,500 prisoners already counted, it is believed that the strong and heavily-armed force which Carranza took from the capital has been completely scattered, as hundreds of the soldiers fled into the mountains when the president abandoned the trains. Refugees tell pitiful stories of hardships and terrors which began with flight from Mexico City on May 7 and which ended in the afternoon of May 14. Hunger, thirst and bullets added to the uncertainty of their fate as the trains headed into the fast closing ranks of the Revolutionary troops sweeping in from Vera Cruz and Puebla Mountains on both sides of the Provoked At Carranza.

They express bitterness at Carranza's failure to accept the safe conduct offered him by both General Gonzales and General Obregon. It is beranza did not know that Vera Cruz had been captured, nor that virtually the entire republic had turned against his administration, and persisted in the attempt to reach Vera Cruz and there set up his administration in a temporary capital.

Cavalry columns under Generals Camarillo, Guajardo and Gonzales are pursuing Carranza. The pursuit is difficult because of the nature of the terrain, and his speedy capture is considered improbable unless his party is intercepted by opponents of his regime who have been operating in that district for the last five years.

The manifesto of Pablo Gonzales. oublished Sunday, announcing his definite retirement from candidacy for the presidency in the July elections, was followed by the news that Gen eral Obregon was leaving Mexico City Sunday night for a northern destina tion, probably Queretaro. General Obregon holds no office, and has not named any interim officials. It is believed that his move is intended to aid the purpose expressed by Gonzales in retiring from his candidacy, which was to remove any possible chance of friction between leaders of the Lib eral Revolutionary party and save the country from possible bloodshed.

Titan 10-20 Kerosene Tractor

REMEMBER this when you buy a tractor—Harvester service is a reliable and very important thing you get "thrown in" when you buy the tractor named above. It safeguards your entire outfit - Power, Machine, Hitch! Later on, if you need a tractor part you will get it with the same dispatch and certainty of perfect fit that you have experienced in connection with your binders and mowers

Titan 10-20 kerosene tractor is built to operate from start to finish on lowpriced kerosene (coal oil), or distillate. It does more than simply run on kerosene—it delivers its full-rated horse power or does any kind of work within its capacity on any kind of oil fuel above 39 degrees Baume.

This means that at the present prices of gasoline and kerosene in this locality you will save fully one-half your fuel costs over a tractor of equal horse power operating on gasoline. Getting down to a dollars-and-cents basis, if a Titan 10-20 is used, you will be able to make a saving of $1,000 on fuel alone in five years of 1,000 hours'

A Titan 10-20 will furnish dependable power in all seasons. For field, road or belt work it can be used day and night if the case demands. It will do this work at the least possible expense. It will be to your advantage to know the Titan 10-20. Come in and look it over. The best time is now.

America Overflowing With Riches. Returning to the United States a few weeks ago with all these horrors ringing in my ears, I found myself once more in a land whose granaries were overflowing, where health and plenty abounded and where life and activity and eager enterprise were in

I asked myself: "What if this plague and famine were here in the great ter ritory between the Atlantic seaboard and the Mississippi valley, which roughly parallels the extent of the's countries and that 65,000,000 of our own people condemned to idleness by lack of raw material and whose fields had been devastated by invasion and rapine were racked by starvation and pestilence and if we had lifted up our voices and invoked the attention of our brothers in happier Europe to our own deep miseries would we not in our despair exclaim against their heartlessness!'

Only Three Ways to Help Europe. There are only three ways by which these stricken lands can secure supplies from the outside world. One is by payment, one by credit, and the third is by exchange of commodities. If these peoples tried to buy materials and supplies in America at the present market value of their currencies Austria would have to pay forty times the original cost, Germany thirteen times, Greece just double, Czecho-Slovakia fourteen times and Poland fifty times. These figures are official and are true index of the economic plight of these countries. It is clear, therefore, that they can not give us gold for the things they must have, nor have they either prod ucts or securities to offer in return for credit. If only they could obtain raw material which these idle millions of theirs could convert into manufactured products they would have something to tender the world in return for its raw material, food and medicine. But if they have neither money nor credit how are they to take this first great Accordingly, I would ask: 1. That Congress immediately pass a bill appropriating a sum not to exceed $500,000,000 for the use of Central and Eastern Europe.

2. That Congress call upon the Pres ident to appoint a nonpolitical commission of three Americans, distin guished, for their character and executive ability and commanding the re spect of the American people, Such commission should include men o the type of General Pershing, Mr. Hoover or ex-Secretary Lane. Lwould invest that commission with complete

3. I would have the commission in structed to proceed at once, accompa nied by proper personnel, to survey conditions in Central and Eastern Eu rope and then act for the restoration of those countries under such condi tions and upon such terms as the com mission itself may decide to be practicable and effective. Among the ditions should be provided that there should be no local interference with the free and untrammeled exercise by the commission of its own prerogative of allocating materials. Governmental politics should be eliminated; unreasonable and prejudicial barriers between the various countries should be removed, and such substantial guarantees as may be available should be exacted in order that the conditions imposed should be fulfilled.

4. As to financial terms, I should make them liberal. · I would charge no interest for the first three years; for the next three years, 6 per cent, with provision that such interest might be funded if the economic conditions of the country were not approaching nor mal, or if its exchange conditions were so adverse as to make payment unduly burdensome, I should make the maturity of the obligation 15 years from its date, and I should have no doubt as to its final payment.

5. Immediately the plan was adopted I would have our government in vite other governments in a position to assist, to participate in the undertaking.

6. To set forth completely my opinion, I should add that in the final instructions the American people, through their government, should say

"We want you to go and do this tob in such a manner as, after study, you think it should be done. This is no ordinary undertaking. The American people trust you to see that it is done would also say to the commission: "Use so much of this money as is needed." Personally, I am confident that with the assistance and co-opera tion which would come from othe 000,000 from the United States would be more than enough to start these countries on their way to self support and the restoration of normal condi The whole plan, of course, involve many practical considerations, the most serious of which is that of obtaining the mones, whether by issuing additional Liberty bonds, an increase in the floating debt or by taxation But I think we could properly say to the treasury department: "We know how serious your financial problems are; we know the difficulties which are immediately confronting you; we know the importance of deflation, and we know that the gov ernment must economize and that individuals must economize, but we also know that the American government dvanced $10,000,000,000 to its allies to attain victory and peace. Certain ly it is worth making the additional advance in order to realize the peace for which we have already struggled until normal conditions are restored in Europe there can be no peace.'

Above all things, I would say that whatever action is taken should be taken immediately. The crisis is so acute that the situation does not ad mit of delay, except with the possibility of consequences one hardly dares ontemplate. The situation that I have spread out here is far beyond the scope of individual charity. Only by the action of covernments, our own and the others erate, can aid be given in sufficient volume. I am also confident that our action would be followed by the gov-ernments of Great Britain, of Holland, Spain and Japan, and that France and Belgium and Italy, notwithstanding all of their losses, would help to the best of their ability.

ACUTE INDIGESTION | FEED IMPORTANT SOON RELIEVED

Arkansas Lady Says She Was In a Serious Condition, But Promptly Recovered After Taking Thedford's Black-Draught.

Peach Orchard, Ark,-Mrs. Etta Cox, of this place, says: "Some time ago I had a spell of acute indigestion, and was in a bad fix. I knew I must have a laxative, and tried Black-Draught. It relieved me, and I soon was all right.

"I can't say enough for Thedford's Black-Draught, and the great good It did for me.

"It is fine for stomach and liver trouble, and I keep it for this. A few doses soon make me feel as good as new. I am glad to tell others the good it did."

Acute indigestion is a serious matter and needs prompt treatment or dangerous results may ensue. A physician's help may be needed, but a good dose of Thedford's Black-Draught will be of benefit by relieving the system from the undigested food which is the cause of the trouble. Thedford's Black Draught is purely vegetable, not disagreeable to take and acts in a prompt and natural way. So many thousands of persons have been benefited by the use of Thed-ford's Black-Draught, you should have no hesitancy in trying this valuable, old well-established remedy, for nost liver and stomach disorders. Sold by all reliable druggists.-Adv.

Held to All Superstitions When the first missionaries visited Marsovan, Turkey, the old Armenian church members were Christians in little more than name. Their beliefs were a mixture of superstitions with a suggestion of a Christian origin. They feared the evil eye, and wore charms to break its power. They put branches of a thorny plant over their chimneys in the form of a cross to prevent witches from coming down and strangling their little children. They visited the graves of saints and offered prayers for relief from sickness, tying a rag on a bush nearby with the hope of returning home leaving their disease tied to the holy spot.

Memorial to Norsemen.

Nearly five centuries before Columbus sailed to America, according to some historians, a party of Norsemer landed on the northeastern coast of the continent, and a few years later established a colony. As a memorial to these early explorers a rough stone tower has been erected at Auburndale, Mass., a town that is believed to occupy the same site as the legendary settlement. Investigation has failed to reveal any traces of building ruins in the vicinity, but has resulted in the finding of several old stone walks, which are thought to have been constructed by the inhabitants of the ancient village.

GREENS IN GARDENS THROUGHOUT 'SEASON

List to Select From Includes Different Varieties.

Culture of Various Plants Is Similar in Many Respects-Each Requires Rich Soll and Cultivation to Keep Surface Loose.

No home garden is complete without greens. The list from which to choose includes spinach, kale, chard, mustard, turnip tops, sour dock, bassella, and young beets. By proper seeding and the use of the right kind of plants, some kind of greens can be had growing in the garden throughout the froste season, according to garden speagriculture.

Cabbage stored in a pit during the during the spring and may be used the same as spinach or other greens. The secret lies in getting a tender growth early in the spring, when our systems call for greens of some sort.

The culture of the various greens is similar in many respects. Each requires rich soil and sufficient cultivation to keep the surface loose and free from weeds. Spinach is a fall, winter, and early spring crop through out the Southern states, a spring and fall crop in the middle states, and a late spring crop in the extreme northern part of the country. From Norfolk, Va., southward along the Atlantic coast, it is customary to cut spinach and kale during the winter, and ship it to the northern markets. Tur-nip tops are used almost universally proved his judgment. throughout the South during the win ter and early spring months as greens.

Spinach is generally grown on a bed raised three or four inches above the surrounding surface to insure good drainage. The beds are made about five or six feet in width, five to seven rows being planted lengthwise. Cover the seed about one-half inch and when the plants appear cultivate the ground between the rows. Fall sown spinach can be protected during the winter with a little straw or leaves and will come out in good condition in the spring provided the temperature does not go below 10 degrees or 12 degrees above zero during the winter, and providing the ground does not freeze and

"THE ISLE OF CONQUEST"

"The Isle of Conquest" is from the famous novel "By Right of Conquest", by Arthur Hornblow, and was adopted to the screen by Anita Loos and John Emerson. In this picture Norma Talmadge has one of the strongest roles of her career. The story tells of Ethel Harmon (Miss Talmadge) who is unhappily wedded to a man she despises. Shipwrecked she is cast upon an island with a single male companion, formerly a stoker on her husband's vacht and while there, finds true love and happiness. Their vicissitudes, both during their stay on the island and after they have been rescued and the way that happiness ultimately comes to them makes a fast moving story, interesting and absorbing. Also-"The Invisible Hand," the new serial. Fatty Arbuckle in "His Wedding Day."
